

TALK STORY

sharing stories, sharing culture

a joint project of the american indian library association and the asian/pacific american librarians association

2019 Grant Information & Application

Program Overview

Talk Story: Sharing Stories, Sharing Culture is a literacy program that reaches out to Asian Pacific American (APA) and American Indian/Alaska Native (AIAN) children and their families. The program celebrates and explores Asian Pacific American (APA) and American Indian/Alaska Native (AIAN) stories through books, oral traditions, and art to provide an interactive and enriching experience. Children and their families can connect to rich cultural activities through Talk Story in their homes, libraries, and communities. This grant is aimed to provide financial support to libraries and community organizations who want to introduce a Talk Story program that focuses on APA or AIAN cultures.

*Talk Story grant funding is available due to the generous support of Toyota California Community Foundation for APALA Talk Story grants and the American Indian Library Association for AILA Talk Story grants.*

Eligibility

Libraries and community organizations that serve APA and/or AIAN children and their families are eligible to apply. We encourage libraries and community organizations to work together on a Talk Story program. With the exception of cross-border tribal organizations, all organizations must be based in the United States or U.S. territories.

Organizations who have previously been awarded two Talk Story grants are ineligible for additional awards.

Application

Please submit a complete and detailed application including a Statement of Need, Narrative, and Proposed Budget. Please describe the program your library or community organization would do with the award and what types of programs highlighting APA or AIAN cultures you are interested in planning for your community.

You may apply for either an APALA grant OR an AILA grant. You may NOT apply to both organizations.

Deadline

Applications must be received by Monday, April 1, 2019.
Awards will be announced by Wednesday, May 1, 2019.

Award Amount

Each organization will offer 2 grants:

$750 grant from APALA

OR

$750 grant from AILA

Selection Criteria

Awardees will be selected from amongst completed applications. Selection is based upon creativity and originality of the implementation of the Talk Story program, accuracy in portrayal of APA/AIAN cultures, and financial need. Selection will also be based upon involvement of the library, community, and community organizations as participants, leaders, and promoters of the proposed Talk Story program.

Use of Funds

Funds must be used by November 30, 2019.

Funds may be used to purchase library materials such as books, audiovisual materials, supplies for activities/crafts, programming costs such as hiring a storyteller, etc.

- At least 25% of funds must be used for library materials.
- No more than 10% of funds may be used for refreshments and decorations
- Funds must be used to support at least one Asian Pacific American or one American Indian/Alaskan Native themed program for children and their families at the institution that receives the grant.

Reporting

Final Financial Report and Narrative form is due by December 31, 2019.

Please include any promotional materials you might have used, photographs taken during the event, and any photography permission slips if we use said photographs on Talk Story's website and social media accounts.

Spending of funds and a brief report of the completed program must be submitted to the APALA/AILA Family Literacy Focus committee by December 31, 2019. The report is expected to reflect and describe the agreed upon program or activities and explain how grant funds were used to support said programs and activities. Report should outline how the program will continue to benefit APA and/or AIAN children and their families in the future and if the program can potentially serve as a model project for other libraries/tribal libraries/organizations. If modifications to the programs and activities need occur, please contact your grant monitor immediately. Grant reports which do not indicate funds were spent appropriately will result in the awardee returning the financial award for a full or partial amount. Please include photos and photo releases where appropriate for use by APALA and AILA to promote the Talk Story program.
